

30-Day Period Pain Relief Tracker

A daily companion to log your symptoms, remedies, and progress

SAMNJ NEWBRAND

This tracker pairs with the guide: 30-Day Period Pain Relief Guide — Natural Remedies That Actually Work

This tracker is for personal wellness tracking only and is not a substitute for medical advice. Please consult a healthcare provider for persistent or severe pain.

How to Use This Tracker

Each day, take two minutes to fill in your pain level, symptoms, and which remedies you tried. Over 30 days, patterns will emerge — you'll start to see exactly what works for your body.

Pain Scale: 0 = no pain, 5 = manageable, 10 = severe

Remedy Key: H = Heat, T = Tea/Herbal, M = Movement/Stretch, N = Nutrition change, S = Sleep/Rest, O = Other

Tip: Keep this tracker somewhere visible — your nightstand or bathroom mirror — so it becomes a natural end-of-day habit.

30-Day Reflection

Take a moment to look back over your month:

- Which remedy made the biggest difference in your pain level?

- What pattern did you notice in your worst pain days (diet, stress, sleep)?

- What will you keep doing next cycle?

- What will you try differently next month?
